

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start!
- Let's Explore!
- Let's Practice!
- Extension Activity
- Target Words
- Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's cook! What do you need?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use basic information in simple situations.

Ask you partner:

- What do you need to make a salad?
Fruit? Vegetables?
- Write a list of ingredients.

Can Do Statements

- I can use count and non-count naming words.
- I can ask a person to hand me things and accept polite requests.
- I can use vocabulary related to food.

Let's Explore!

Greg and Henry are at the grocery store. They want to make a salad. What do they get?

* A "grocery store" is a small store where you buy food. A supermarket is a big grocery store.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Greg: What's for dinner?
Henry: A big salad maybe?
Greg: Sure, good idea! What do we need?
Henry: Well, we need some lettuce and tomatoes.
Greg: Yes, pickles too. And bread.
Henry: How about some olives?
Greg: I don't like olives. Cucumbers?
Henry: Well, I don't like cucumbers.
Greg: What about some cheese?
Henry: That's a great idea! Can you pass me some cheese? Oh, and grab that bottle of salad dressing too!
Greg: Sure! There you go.
Henry: So, do you want any salad?
Greg: Not really. Can I have a ham sandwich?

Let's Practice!

There are many ingredients for the salad!

Instructions: There are many ingredients for the salad! Can you put them in the right place?

	Count Nouns	Non-Count Nouns
1. tomatoes	☐	☐
2. pickles	☐	☐
3. cheese	☐	☐
4. cucumbers	☐	☐
5. lettuce	☐	☐

Let's Practice!

Can you ask someone to hand you something?

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Use the following words: pass, Can, please.

1. Sarah: _____ you pass me some pickles, please?

Tim: Sure! Here you go.

2. Tim: Can you hand me the salad dressing, _____?

Sarah: There you go!

3. Tim: What about some cheese?

Sarah: That's a great idea! Can you _____ me some cheese?

Extension Activity

What is your favorite salad? What do you need to make it?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Pretend you and your friend want to make a salad. Write a dialogue.
- Ask your friend to hand you things you need for the salad.
- Practice saying the dialogue aloud.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about preparing food.

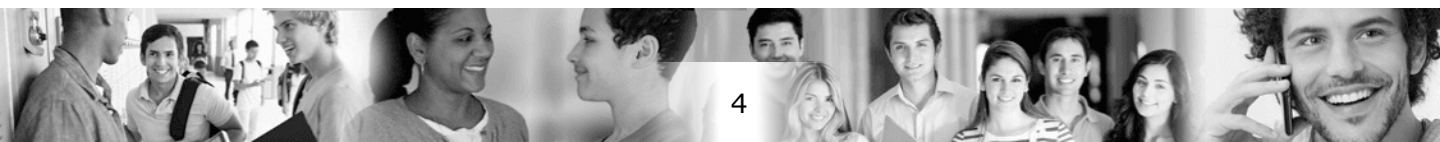

☐ ☐

I ask a person to hand me something in the kitchen.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- lettuce (noun): a green vegetable we put in salads
e.g. I need to buy lettuce to make a salad.
- tomato (noun): a round, soft, red fruit we put in salads, sandwiches, sauces, etc.
e.g. I like tomatoes in my sandwich.
- cucumber (noun): a long vegetable with dark green skin we put in salads e.g. We plant cucumbers in our garden.
- pickle (noun): a cucumber that is put in vinegar for a long time
e.g. I like pickles on my hamburger.
- olive (noun): a small black or green fruit we put in food or use to make oil e.g. She buys a bottle of olive oil at the store.
- cheese (noun): a solid yellow or white food that is made from milk
e.g. I like to put cheese in my sandwich.
- salad dressing (noun): a mix of liquids that is added to a salad
e.g. He likes the salad dressing you put on the salad.

Learning Points

Count and Non-Count Nouns

Count nouns are things you can count. They can be singular or plural nouns.
Non-count nouns are amounts. They are singular nouns.

Notice: The non-count noun cheese does NOT change. It stays the same.

Count	Non-Count	Example
singular = 1 apple plural = 2 apples	cheese	Please slice some cheese. Please put some apples in the basket. This apple is delicious!

